

2002 Outstanding Technology Company of the Year Award

sponsored by Exygen Research

Finalists

Criteria: Recipient must be a member of the CBICC; may be a new or established company; must be a developer or user of current technologies and should demonstrate how they have an impact on the particular industry they are in; should show how they have achieved excellence in making technology work through technology transfer or strategic use of technology for the betterment of their own company or customers; and should explain how they are a leading example of the technology industry in Centre County and what impact they have made on the county in terms of jobs or other benefits.

Previous Recipients:

Restek Corporation (2001)

Exygen Research (formerly Centre Analytical Laboratories, Inc.), (2000)